Welcoming Bismarck.

THE COMPLETE RECONCILIATION

Of the Emperor and the Ex-Chancellor at the Palace.

A SCENE OF DRAMATIC INTEREST.

dences of the Appreciation by the People of His Act in Restoring the Great Statesman to Royal Favor.

the History of Germany.

PRINCE BISMARCK.

BERLIN, Jan. 26.—A dispatch from Friedrichsruhe received here to-day was the signal for an outburst of cheering when its contents were made known in front of the different newspaper offices, in the clubs and in other public places, for it announced that Prince Bismarck had started for Berlin at 9:30 in order to cement the reconciliation which has taken place between the emperor and himself after four long years of bitterness. Prince Bismarck when he left the castle of Friedrichsruhe was accompanied by Princess Bismarck by Count Herbert Bismarck and Doctors Schweninger and Chrysander.

The whole neighborhood of Fried-richsruhe turned out to cheer the veteran statesman as he departed for Berlin, and six beautiful young girls dressed in white presented the prince with a handsome laurel wreath inscribed:
"A happy journey."

These young girls also carried large baskets of flowers and they preceded Prince Bismarck's party to the railroad station, strewing the road with flowers and the vociferous cheering of the immense crowds which lined the route and did their utmost to make the veteran statesman feel that he had a large share of the hearts of patriotic Germans. The prince seemed greatly pleased with the honors extended to him and shook hands with many of those who gathered at the railroad station to see him off.

The train, engine and railroad depot were gaily decked with flowers and bunting and every station along the route to Berlin was decorated and crowded with people who cheered the prince on his way to the capital.

THE EMPEROR CHEERED.

All the streets through which Prince Bismarck was to pass were handsomely decorated and the windows of the houses began to fill with people long before the hour set for the arrival of the prince's train in Berlin.

While the crowds were awaiting the arrival of Prince Bismarck they suddenly saw Emperor William, attended by a single aide-de-camp, returning from a ride in the Thiergarten, the largest park near the town.

This was about 11 o'clock, and as the emperor rode quickly toward the Schloss, or royal palace, he was frantically cheered by the people, who became determined to show him how heartily they appreciated the fact that he had become reconciled to Prince Bismarck. The reception accorded to the emperor upon this occasion was entirely unprecedented and evidently delighted him, for he smiled and saluted on all sides. Shortly before noon, the crowd about the Lehrter station was most dense and remarkable from the fact that in front of the station, as well as upon the platform, was a large assembly of distinguished officers and public officials all dressed in gorgeous uniforms and all assembled there by special orders of Emperor William.

Around the neighborhood of the depot a strong force of military and police guarded every point and kept space clear for the most distinguished officers and public men.

A ROYAL WEDDING.

Promptly at 1 o'clock the train bearing Prince Bismarck and his party entered the station, and as it slowed up at the platform Prince Bismarck was seen at the window of his carriage and was loudly cheered by those who recognized him in the depot. This cheering was the signal for an outburst of applause, which, being taken up by the crowds outside the station, seemed to be carried throughout Berlin, as it was taken up and carried along from street to street. When the train had come to a standstill Prince Bismarck stepped upon the platform, where he was met by Prince Henry of Prussia and a large crowd of distinguished officers.

Prince Henry extended a most cordial greeting to Bismarck, and the latter shook hands with many of the distinguished officers present, several of whom, especially the veterans, were affected considerably at this meeting the chancellor once more. After a short interval, during which a number of most complimentary little speeches were made, Prince Bismarck was escorted by Prince Henry to one of the imperial carriages, which was in waiting at the entrance of the depot. As the prince emerged from the station and was recognized by the people a storm of "hosannas" and "hurrahs" arose from the crowd until it assumed a deafening roaring sound which could be heard for miles and miles. No man could but help feel proud at such a welcome and at such evidence of a strong hold upon the heart of the people.

Prince Bismarck was the first to enter the imperial carriage and he took a seat on the right of Prince Henry of Prussia, who followed him into the vehicle.
Then, the way being led by a detachment of cuirassiers, their brilliant ac-couterments and armor glittering and clashing musically as they proceeded, the procession started for the palace, followed by another detachment of cuirassiers. From the windows of the houses along the route followed by the prince's carriage to the palace, and from the crowds of people gathered in the street, showers of flowers were thrown into the carriage and people shouted themselves hoarse in their efforts to welcome the prince.

TEARS OF JOY.

But more touching still was the fact that numbers of faces streaming with tears were to be seen among those who gathered to welcome Bismarck back to Berlin, and many of those who shouted the most lustily for the ex-chancellor did so with their handkerchiefs wet with tears.

Prince Bismarck was evidently much moved by this popular demonstration, and it can safely be said that no one emperor or king ever received a warmer welcome in Berlin.

In the palace Emperor William received Prince Bismarck with the greatest distinction, surrounded by a brilliant staff of officers of the highest rank.
This welcome which the emperor extended to Prince Bismarck was extremely cordial and it was evident that the prince was much touched at the heartiness of the emperor's manner.

The three eldest sons of Emperor William were present at the reception.
At 1:45 p. m. luncheon was served in the emperor's private rooms, where only three covers were laid—one for the emperor, one for the empress and one for Prince Bismarck. After luncheon Prince Bismarck retired to his own room for a rest and Emperor William went for a ride.

Prince Bismarck's arrival at the castle was followed by an enthusiastic succession of demonstrations upon the part of the people. Thousands upon thousands of people packed the square in front of the castle, singing the national anthem, "Wacht Am Rhein" and
"Deutschland Ueber Alles."

The enthusiasm was so great that the emperor and empress, the young princes and Prince Bismarck repeatedly appeared at a window, bowing in response to the manifestations which continued throughout the afternoon.

At 3 o'clock Chancellor Von Capri-vi, followed by all the secretaries of state, called at the castle and left their cards for Prince Bismarck.

THE RETURN.

The train taking Prince Bismarck back to Friedrichsruhe left this city shortly after 7:30 p. m.

Emperor William accompanied the ex-chancellor to the railroad station and they were escorted from the palace to the depot by a strong detachment of cuirassiers, by all the members of the general staff as well as by a number of generals.

At the railroad station the emperor warmly shook Prince Bismarck's hand at the door of the carriage which was to convey him back to his home.

Upon parting with Prince Bismarck, Emperor William repeatedly kissed the veteran upon both cheeks and after the latter had entered the railroad carriage, the emperor turned to Count Herbert von Bismarck and addressed a few words to him, the first in a very long while.

The emperor then resumed his conversation with Prince Bismarck, who leaned out of the carriage window, bareheaded, in order to converse with his majesty.

This exhibition of good feeling between the emperor and the prince called forth loud cheers from the persons assembled in the depot, and then the whole assemblage joined in singing
"Deutschland Ueber Alles."

As the train drew out of the depot, there was a perfect storm of "hohehs," to which applause Prince Bismarck bowed and smiled.

Emperor William was loudly cheered upon leaving the railway station and on his way back to the palace.

A Happy Mother.

I am most happy to testify to the benefits received from Radam's Microbe Killer. It quickly and completely cured my baby of croup. MRS. CARROLL,

THE AGE OF PNEUMONIA.

Slight attacks of cold often develop into pneumonia. Statistics show that this disease is rapidly increasing in our country, and is generally accompanied with fatal results. Cubeb Cough Cure will prevent pneumonia if taken in time. Sold by Alex. T. Young, John Klarl, Wheeling, and Bowie & Co., Bridgeport, Ohio.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation.
It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.
